

Federal Agency for the Safety of the Food Chain of Belgium

DG Control Policy
Department of Animal
Health

CA-Botanique
Food Safety Center
Boulevard du Jardin botanique
B-1000 Bruxelles
Tél. 02 211 82 11

cvo.belgium@afsca.be www.afsca.be

EN 0267.387.230

Kingdom of Belgium

To whom it may concern

I undersigned, Chantal Rettigner, Chief Veterinary Officer of Belgium and dep. delegate to the WOAHOIE (World Organization for Animal Health) declare that Belgium is officially free from African Swine Fever for all suidae since 1st October 2020 in accordance with Chapter 15 of the WOAHOIE Terrestrial Code.

The Approved WOAHOIE self-declaration is accessible via the following links:

- <https://www.oie.int/en/what-we-offer/self-declared-disease-status/>
- https://www.oie.int/fileadmin/Home/eng/Animal Health in the World/docs/pdf/Self-declarations/2020_12_Belgium ASF self-declaration ENG.pdf

Any change in the epidemiological situation will be immediately published on the FASFC's website* with an adaptation of this declaration, and will be notified to the WOAHOIE in accordance with its provisions.

Brussels, 3 July 2023.

Dr. Chantal RETTIGNER

Chief Veterinary Officer of Belgium

Dep. Delegate to the "World Organisation for Animal Health - WOAHOI"

Director Animal Health and Safety of Animal Products Federal Agency for the Safety of the Food Chain

*<https://www.fasfc.be/outbreaks-african-swine-fever>

Our mission is to ensure that all actors in the food chain can provide the consumers and each other with the greatest possible assurance that the food, animals, plants and products they consume, keep or use are reliable, safe and protected, now and in the future.